

Do not sell out the citizenry by allowing our public airwaves to be taken by media monopolies. For the best interests of the American public, keep the rules as is. Conglomerates only have an interest in profit, not dissemination of information, balanced news, or diversity. This proposed action is unethical and immoral and will be challenged successfully if you do not take heed.